PRESS RELEASE January 5, 2012

Sgt. Larry Harpster reported that on December 29, 2011, Walter K. Toll Jr., a 54 year old Painesville Township resident, was found to be in possession of a Smith & Wesson "Bodyguard" model .380 semi-automatic hand gun and ammunition. Mr. Toll had the firearm hidden in a compartment inside the engine compartment of his pickup truck in Painesville Township. Due to the fact that Mr. Toll is a convicted felon (CCW in 2005, Possession of Cocaine in 2005 and Theft in 2010) he was arrested and booked in to the Lake County Jail on the charge of Having Weapons Under Disability, a third degree felony. The origin of the firearm is still under investigation.
